For The District of Delaware

Detlef F. Hartmann,
Plaintiff,
v.

Civil Action No.

06-cv-340-KAJ

Commissioner Andrea Haybee-Froud, et.al.,
Defendants,

Motion For Extension of Time For Amendment To Civil Complaint

Scanned- BD 9/18/06

Pursuant to Rule 6(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Mr. Hartmann moves for an extension of time to respond to the Order dated August 21, 2006.

In support thereof, the following is stated:

1. Mr. Hartmann, and as representative of classes as one, is an inmate at the Delaware Correctional Center with its present and past history of illegal obstructions and continues deliberate indifference to the laws with invidious discriminatory animus as mentioned in Civil Complaint causing prejudice to his and class members timely, equal, effective, meaningful, capable, and adequate access to the information to communicate to the courts in the interest of equal protection of the laws of the land.

2. Mr. Hartmann, and classes, of ^{indigent} indigent inmates and disabled inmates at the Delaware Correctional Center cannot afford counsel for timely, equal, effective, meaningful, capable, and adequate access to information and being able to communicate the illegal conditions to a court as required by laws in the interest of equal justice for all.

3. Mr. Hartmann lacks knowledge, education, and experience of legal research and legal principles, which will be and are the focus of this Complaint, which would cause manifest injustice and lack of fundamental fairness, denial of due process and equal protection of the laws under the United States Constitution and Statutes due to lack thereof, which would prejudice and discriminate against Him and the classes He represents as one of them.

4. Due to Mr. Hartmann's personal disabilities caused by the many illegal prison conditions as per Civil Complaint, and yet to be able to be communicated to the courts, prejudices and discriminates against Him and the classes as inmates at the Delaware Correctional Center, to properly research and prepare His Complaint in a timely, equal, effective, meaningful, capable, and adequate manner for equal protection of the laws of the land.

Therefore, it is expected that Mr. Hartmann will need more time to improve the claims.

Wherefore, based on the above reasons as examples for the need, Mr. Hartmann respectfully prays this Honorable Court to GRANT this Motion and extend the time for filing His Amendment to the Order for 30 days to October 20, 2006.

Dated: September 6, 2006
